

Drapery Season Here!

Every year this department is increasing in the demands for our curtains and drapery materials; we have some of the best goods on the market, if not the best. All new, handsome patterns and colorings in all materials. The large assortment we carry in these lines enables the shopper to find what she is looking for and the attractiveness of colors will appeal to the shopper at once. Do not buy until you have inspected this department. We are showing in our window only a few new numbers that are ready for your approval.

SCRIMS

This is one on the strongest lines in this department; we have a 40-inch scrim, all new styles with border patterns and colorings, per yard, at.....25c
New Marquisettes, in plain and fancy designs, new patterns, per yard, at.....38c
Plain Marquisettes, in white and Arabian, 40-inch, per yard, at.....29c and 38c
Plain Scrims, in white and Arabian, per yard, at.....15c and 25c

CRETONES

New patterns in stripes and figured, per yard, at.....18c and 29c

SILKOLINES

Here you will find a large assortment of these goods, just the material for puffs and draperies, per yard, at.....12½c
Plain colors, per yard, at.....10c

COUCH COVER MATERIALS

A 50-inch Material, in green and red, also good for portieres, per yard, at.....50c

DEMINS

Plain Demins, 36-inch, per yard, at.....25c

PLAIN BURLAP

In green, brown and natural, per yard, at.....18c

MONKS' CLOTH

A new, softer finish than the burlap, per yard, at.....39c

New Couch Covers, Portieres and Table Covers Just Received

THE HOMER FITTS COMPANY

TALK OF THE TOWN

Last call on peaches. We have just received a fancy lot of Elberta peaches, large baskets at $1.10. Remember, this is the last of peaches for the season. At Diversi Fruit company.

Miss Morgan's dancing school will open Friday, Sept. 27, in Woodmen's hall. Pupils wishing to enter the class call on Miss Morgan, 70 Ayers street, or phone 444-11.

Be sure and come to the supper to be served by the September circle at Hedding M. E. church next Wednesday, Sept. 25. The chicken pies are to be made by Mrs. Benedict and the quality of them can be depended upon.

TALK OF THE TOWN

We have a few good peaches left at 75c a basket. These are absolutely sound. At Diversi Fruit company.

Menu of Presbyterian Church Supper, Wednesday, Sept. 25.

Cold Meat.
Baked Beans. Brown Bread.
Cabbage Salad. Pickles. Beet Salad.
Hot Rolls.
Lemon Pie. Custard Pie.
Doughnuts. Assorted Cake.
Tea. Coffee.
Supper from 5:30 to 7:30. Price 25c.
Children under 12 years, 15 cents.

TALK OF THE TOWN

William Chiss of Barre spent Sunday with friends in West Topsham. Miss Gladys Carroll of Keith avenue is confined to the house by illness. H. H. Blanchard of Springfield was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

R. E. Booth of Essex Junction arrived in the city last night for a few days' business visit. Miss Theresa Linekin of Thomaston, Me., arrived in the city last evening for an extended visit.

William Evanson of Durham, N. H., was among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day.

Mrs. William Shannon of Summer street is able to be out, after two weeks of serious illness.

Miss Anna Adie returned home Sunday from a ten days' visit with relatives in Hanover, N. H.

William Murray left this forenoon for Brattleboro, where he will remain for a few days on business.

John Brown of Bassett street left to-day for New York, where he will visit relatives for a fortnight.

William McLeod of Warren street returned home last night, after spending the summer at Bethlehem, N. H.

William Buchanan and Charles Van-Cor left this forenoon for New York, where they will pass ten days.

Miss Olwyn Jones of Prospect street has been detained from her duties in the F. D. Ladd Co.'s store by illness.

The regular meeting of the school commissioners will be held at the Spaulding building this evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Frances L. Cushman of Orange street left this forenoon on the New York excursion, to be absent two weeks.

O. H. Hale of Pearl street left this morning for Tunbridge, where he will participate in the doings at the "World's Fair."

Everett Jackson of Brookfield went this morning to Burlington to resume his studies at the university of Vermont.

Mrs. Samuel Carswell of Ayers street left this forenoon for New York, where she will remain ten days with relatives.

Miss Cora Goodwin returned yesterday to her home in Tunbridge, after spending a few days with friends in the city.

W. H. Jones of Plattsburgh, N. Y., and Maurice Bugbee of Washington street went this morning to Waterbury for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. William Greig of 54 North Main street left this morning for New York, from where she will go to Larchmont for a week's visit with her son and sister.

Twenty tickets were sold at the Central Vermont station at 11:40 for the excursion to New York. Two extra day coaches were attached to the regular train going over the Barre branch.

Miss Blanche Cooley of East Montpelier has resumed her duties at the Daylight store, after having been absent for several days on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Kendrick.

Among the delegates from the Church of the Good Shepherd, who expect to leave to-night for Bennington to attend the diocesan convention are F. A. Howland, John Robbins, J. W. Vaughan and Harry Smith.

Leon R. Abbott, who has been spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Abbott of Abbott avenue, left this forenoon for Allston, Mass., where he will remain while pursuing his course of study at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Roadmaster G. H. Watson of the Montpelier & Wells River railroad has a gang of men engaged in replacing the railroad ties covering the city sewer system in the rear of the Calder & Richardson block on Depot square with granite slabs. For a stretch of thirty-five feet, the sewer main in this vicinity has been protected by railroad ties. These, however, were in a decayed condition, and it was thought advisable to supplant the granite slabs and the wooden cover gave way and clogged the system. A number of stonecutters are employed on the job.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

TALK OF THE TOWN

Buy your ready-to-wear garments now at Vaughan's.

A regular meeting of the L. A. A. O. E. will be held Wednesday night in K. of C. hall.

Prepare for cold weather; this week, comfortable materials at bargain prices. Henry W. Knight.

Our big purchase from Boston Dry Goods company's liquidation sale is on sale at Vaughan's.

The Arts and Crafts club will meet with the Misses Spear on Jefferson street Wednesday evening.

The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual fair on the 14th, 15th and 16th of November.

Mrs. William Greig left this forenoon for New York, in which vicinity she will make a ten days' visit with relatives.

Philip Vercoe and Harry Oliver returned home last night, after passing the summer in the White mountains.

James W. Gearson of 173 Hill street left this forenoon for St. Johnsbury, where he will attend the state Baptist convention.

Chicken pie supper. Where? Hedding M. E. church. When? Wednesday, Sept. 25, to be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank Trow of Trow hill returned home to-day, after spending several days with relatives in Plainfield and Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Grenier returned yesterday afternoon to their home in Colchester, after passing the week-end with friends in the city.

Miss Mildred Cook and Miss Agnes Olsen of Washington street returned home last night, after spending several days with friends in Lebanon, N. H.

Abraham Jacobs of East Corinth was business visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. Jacobs recently purchased the farm in Corinth owned by Mrs. Fred Mann.

Mrs. Frank A. Hutchinson of Park street went yesterday to St. Johnsbury, where she will attend the state Baptist convention in session there this week.

Mrs. Howard Rockwood of Waterbury arrived in the city yesterday for a few days' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Nelson of Merchant street.

Miss Crissie Casson, who recently returned to Barre, after passing the summer at Old Orchard, Me., is employed as a stenographer in the law office of M. M. Gordon.

Mrs. Arthur J. Boisson and two children, who have been visiting relatives in this city and Westerville, returned this morning to their home near Sherbrook, P. Q.

Harry Spector of Jersey City, N. J., who is making a stay of several weeks in Barre, returned yesterday, after passing a few days in Burlington on business.

Dean Ayers of Beckley street left last night for Hanover, N. H., where he will resume his duties in a drug store in which he has been employed since August 1.

Rev. and Mrs. George H. Holt of Highland avenue left yesterday for St. Johnsbury, where they are attending the annual gathering of the Vermont State Baptist convention.

Regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, No. 18, Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Important business. Vice grand.

Retail Clerks. Notice! Regular meeting of local 241, R. C. L. P. A., to be held in K. of P. hall Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

A meeting of the North Barre cribbage team will be held in the Bonaccord pavilion to-night, Tuesday, at 6:30 o'clock. Let every member be present. Business important. Per order secretary.

Regular meeting of lumpers, boxers and derrickmen, No. 50, will be held in carpenters' hall, Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, at 7:30 o'clock. Important business. Per order Cor. Sec. Thos. R. Holder.

Mrs. Emma A. LaPoint was appointed a department aide of the Woman's Relief corps by the late president, Mrs. Ida Goodenough, and has received her commission from Mrs. Hattie Shipman, department president, of Hardwick.

Notice, Winnetta council, No. 10, D. of P. All those wishing to go to the corn roast Saturday afternoon at Amos Hall's farm, please hand their names to Mrs. Levin, Mrs. Inglis, Mrs. Brewster or Mrs. Brown before Thursday night. Amos Hall's team will carry the ladies to the farm.

Notice! An adjourned meeting of Barre branch, G. C. L. A., will be held in Miles hall Tuesday, Sept. 24, 1912, for the purpose of voting for two delegates to attend the convention of the American Federation of Labor. The ballot will be open from 4 o'clock until 8 in the evening. Angus McDonald, Secretary.

Among the clergymen from out of the city who are participating in the service of forty hours' devotion at St. Monica's church are Rev. W. F. Crosby of Hardwick, Rev. T. Leonard of St. Johnsbury, Rev. J. B. McGarry of Northfield, Rev. D. E. Coffey of Waterbury, Rev. E. F. Cray of Albany, and Rev. Joseph Turcot of Granville.

Notice! An important meeting of the branch of Barre della G. C. L. A. vera tenuto Martedì 24 Settembre al Miles hall e per l'elezione dei due delegati al Congresso dell'American Federation of Labor. Stante l'importanza di tali due deliberazioni le urne per votare resteranno aperte detto giorno delle 4 alle 8 pom. Non mancate a questa votazione. Per ordine Angus McDonald, Secretary.

Goddard seminary boys to enter Tufts college this fall include Raymond Sherburne of St. Johnsbury, Clarence R. MacIver of Granville, John Blackmer Smith of Williamstown and Clayton G. Spencer of Barre. Already they are entering into college life, Sherburne and MacIver being on the varsity football squad with Richardson, a Goddard graduate of the previous year, and Spencer has been elected a member of the committee on "Amateur Night," an institution first established at Tufts last year.

NOTICE.

The Orange water will be turned off Wednesday and Thursday for the purpose of changing the main. The pressure will be low for people living on high ground and it would be well for them to draw water enough for the day, Wednesday morning before eight o'clock. H. E. Reynolds, Supt.

Regular meeting of Iroquois tribe, No. 16, to-night at 7:30; degree rehearsal.

Granite business in prosperous Illinois town; consisting of a modern shed, 60x100 feet, well ventilated, well equipped, with machinery, including sixty horse power boiler, fifty horse power engine, thirty horse power gasoline engine (new), Blaisdell air compressor (run by foot per minute), ten-ton traveling crane, two pole saws, large roller saws, saws, stump puller, plug drill, a lot of pneumatic tools, etc., besides well equipped blacksmith shop. A large amount of work on hand besides two cars of dimension stock. Everything would invoice for around $10,000 but the owners say sell at $4,000, as one of the owners is anxious to go farther west. Might sell one-half interest if everything was satisfactory. Here is an excellent opportunity for anyone acquainted with the business to engage in something that is profitable and do business direct with the consumer. Call at our office and see photograph.

Thos. D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, Barre, Vt.

Granite business in prosperous Illinois town; consisting of a modern shed, 60x100 feet, well ventilated, well equipped, with machinery, including sixty horse power boiler, fifty horse power engine, thirty horse power gasoline engine (new), Blaisdell air compressor (run by foot per minute), ten-ton traveling crane, two pole saws, large roller saws, saws, stump puller, plug drill, a lot of pneumatic tools, etc., besides well equipped blacksmith shop. A large amount of work on hand besides two cars of dimension stock. Everything would invoice for around $10,000 but the owners say sell at $4,000, as one of the owners is anxious to go farther west. Might sell one-half interest if everything was satisfactory. Here is an excellent opportunity for anyone acquainted with the business to engage in something that is profitable and do business direct with the consumer. Call at our office and see photograph.

Thos. D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, Barre, Vt.

Granite business in prosperous Illinois town; consisting of a modern shed, 60x100 feet, well ventilated, well equipped, with machinery, including sixty horse power boiler, fifty horse power engine, thirty horse power gasoline engine (new), Blaisdell air compressor (run by foot per minute), ten-ton traveling crane, two pole saws, large roller saws, saws, stump puller, plug drill, a lot of pneumatic tools, etc., besides well equipped blacksmith shop. A large amount of work on hand besides two cars of dimension stock. Everything would invoice for around $10,000 but the owners say sell at $4,000, as one of the owners is anxious to go farther west. Might sell one-half interest if everything was satisfactory. Here is an excellent opportunity for anyone acquainted with the business to engage in something that is profitable and do business direct with the consumer. Call at our office and see photograph.

Thos. D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, Barre, Vt.

Granite business in prosperous Illinois town; consisting of a modern shed, 60x100 feet, well ventilated, well equipped, with machinery, including sixty horse power boiler, fifty horse power engine, thirty horse power gasoline engine (new), Blaisdell air compressor (run by foot per minute), ten-ton traveling crane, two pole saws, large roller saws, saws, stump puller, plug drill, a lot of pneumatic tools, etc., besides well equipped blacksmith shop. A large amount of work on hand besides two cars of dimension stock. Everything would invoice for around $10,000 but the owners say sell at $4,000, as one of the owners is anxious to go farther west. Might sell one-half interest if everything was satisfactory. Here is an excellent opportunity for anyone acquainted with the business to engage in something that is profitable and do business direct with the consumer. Call at our office and see photograph.

Thos. D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, Barre, Vt.

Granite business in prosperous Illinois town; consisting of a modern shed, 60x100 feet, well ventilated, well equipped, with machinery, including sixty horse power boiler, fifty horse power engine, thirty horse power gasoline engine (new), Blaisdell air compressor (run by foot per minute), ten-ton traveling crane, two pole saws, large roller saws, saws, stump puller, plug drill, a lot of pneumatic tools, etc., besides well equipped blacksmith shop. A large amount of work on hand besides two cars of dimension stock. Everything would invoice for around $10,000 but the owners say sell at $4,000, as one of the owners is anxious to go farther west. Might sell one-half interest if everything was satisfactory. Here is an excellent opportunity for anyone acquainted with the business to engage in something that is profitable and do business direct with the consumer. Call at our office and see photograph.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Abbott's full line of winter underwear and hosiery now ready for your inspection.

George A. Hill of Northfield arrived in the city yesterday for a few days' business visit.

William T. Maiden of Merchant street went to Burlington yesterday to resume his studies at the university of Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Findley returned yesterday to their home in Hardwick, after spending a few days with friends in the city.

Mrs. Edith Milne is passing several days in Granville, having been called there by the death of her brother, George Riddell.

Rev. W. J. M. Beattie of Highland avenue left this morning for Bennington, where he will attend the annual convention of the Vermont diocese.

Robert C. Davis returned to his home in St. Johnsbury yesterday, after a short visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. P. J. Corskie of Tremont street.

George F. Howe of South Main street resumed his duties as motorman on the Barre & Montpelier Traction Co.'s line this morning, after a ten days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bridges, who have been spending two weeks with Mrs. Bridges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Adams, of South Barre, have returned to their home in Norwich, Conn.

Barre friends of Mrs. C. P. Davis of St. Johnsbury will be glad to learn that she is recovering from an operation which she underwent September 15 at Brightlook hospital, St. Johnsbury.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bickford.

Charles Riddell of Detroit, Mich., will arrive in the city to-night on his way home to Granville, where he will attend the funeral of his younger brother, George Riddell, whose death occurred at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier, Sunday forenoon.

W. J. Edwards, Alex. Bowerman and Leonard Trimble of Westerville left this morning for Bennington, where they will attend the Episcopal diocesan convention as delegates from St. John the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clellan Waldo Fisher of Worcester, Mass., who are stopping in this city visiting old friends, were former Barre people and are well known here. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Mae Bick